Frank S. Woodson one of the best newspaper writers in the State died in Richmond Monday. His remains interred in Danville. As a writer of industrial activities he made the Times - Dispatch a clearing house for news of that character of the State. He was perhaps the best known newspaper man in the State. We shall miss his inspiration, and Virginia his devotion to her best interests.

Successful Sale by Tobacco Association

These are record days of action and accomplishment for the Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association. Within less than ten days of the opening of its South Carolina warehouses, the Association made a big sale of its members' tobacco and several smaller sales which establish at the outset that the Association is a going concern and prepared to do business with the tobacco companies, its big customers. Last week's receipts for tobacco in the cooperative warehouse ran over 3,300,000 pounds, and the enthusiasm of the members for the new marketing system is growing daily.

Following the success of the cooperative markets in South Carolina, the Eastern Carolina growers are eagerly awaiting the opening of their Association warehouses this week, and tremendous deliveries are looked for on Thursday, August 24th, when the Eastern belt's cooperative markets will receive their members' product.

Very satisfactory advances have been secured from the committee of North Carolina bankers on the tobacco of Eastern Carolina growers. Each member will receive his cash advance upon delivering tobacco this week and in addition will be given his participation receipt. The participation receipt is guarantee that he will receive all future payments for his tobacco and is proving valuable collateral for loans by growers, both in Kentucky and South Carolina.

So clean cut is the system of grading tobacco in the Association warehouses that the advance payments for each grade will be posted conspicuously at each cooperative warehouse. Richard R. Patterson, manager of the Association's Leaf Department, formerly holding that position with the American Tobacco Company and C. B. Cheatham and A. R. Breedlove, assistant managers of the Association's Leaf Department and known as leaders in the trade, will supervise the trading at the Eastern Carolina markets, as in South Carslina, where the grading pleased the members from the very start.

Recent meetings of importance were last week's celebration of Charlotte county's 98 per cent sign up by 5,000 farmers who attended the annual barbecue at Charlotte Court House, Virginia, and heard Dr. Clarence Poe and M. O. Wilson secretary of the Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association; the overflow meeting of tobacco farmers in the court house at Wilson, N. C., when new members joined the Association on the first day's operation of the auction markets, and the great mass meeting of tobacco growers at Durham, N. C, on August 19th, when a great gathering of farmers and business men welcomed Oliver J. Sands, executive manager of the Association.

Buckingham

The laws of our State requires a man to take care of the woman he marries. The Bible says that a man who does not provide for his own household, hath denied the faith and is worse than an infidel. Now these laws secular and divine are alright for the protection of good women, but I have seen a man made to maintain a woman who did not seem fit for wifehood, motherhood nor for a place among decent men and women and I asked the woman who was asking the streng arm of the law to make her husband support her if she thought she was doing her duty by her husband. I heard a notably pious man say he did not think the young women of the age intended to do wrong but that they were too weak to resist the temptation to dress as is the present fashion and to be familiar with men as is the custom. I hear that in the city unless a girl will let a boy hug and kiss her that he will not offer to wait on her and in a short time after she yields to this diabolical habit that he will have nothing more to do with her God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrow and he has only to put forth his hand to destroy us and how many man like Lot and women like lots wife will be found? Now there is a class of old maids who never did as the young girls are doing now and they hold themselves so stiff and unapproachable as to make married women wonder if these nice old maids ever felt the raging passion that seems to have taken hold of the young women of the land

There was a grand time here on the 17th which was a day long to be remembered in Buckingham John A. Twyman called the meeting to order as temporary president of the Lee Memorial Association and then a permanent organization was effected by the election of W. J. Hubard as president Mrs. A. S. Hall vice president and Miss Fannie T. White as secretary-treasurer Twyman Hubard and Major Cook all made interesting addresses in which the noble Lee was compared to the leading lights that have been in the world for ages and all the speakers pointed to the fact that General Lee was a true follower of our own dear Savior. The invocation was offered by Dr. Taylor of the Baptist church, who was here conducting a revival meeting. The books of the Lee Memorial Association were then opened for membership and the shackels literally flowed into the hands of the treasurer. Then adjournment was had for dinner which was a sumptious affair. The mid day meal over the people motored to the site where the monument is to be erected and Dr. Taylor delivered one of those finished orations for which he is so well prepared.

A negro man took out a warrant charging the son of a prominent farmer living near here with having committed a criminal assult on one of his daughters and the case was heard by Justices Moss, Glover and Gilliam and dismissed. It is surmised by those who knew somewhat of the case that a wild drunken set of young men were fool heardy enough to assault this negro girl, but that the charge was brought against the wrong man.

The newly appointed school board will meet here on the first Monday in September and the board of Supervisors meet the same day.

Circuit Court opens here Tuesday, September the 12th.

Some fat veal calves sent by truck from here to Richmond last week sold for 9½ cents a pound. Mr. Crouch charges $2 each for taking a veal to Richmond and selling it.

Special services begin at Maysville Presbyterian church on fourth Sunday with Rev. Francis to assist the pastor and Mrs. Francis who was a Salvation Army worker is also expected to help in the meeting.

Dr. Perkins Glover was up Sunday to see Mrs. Henry Lewis who is ill at her home near Howardsville.

$10,000,000 AID FOR VETERANS

Red Cross Provides Friendly Service of Many Kinds to Army of Disabled.

BULK OF WORK BY CHAPTERS

2,397 of These Are Helping Ex-Service Men Obtain Benefits U. S. Provides.

One field of Red Cross service alone, that of assisting disabled veterans of the World War, entails expenditures $10,000,000 greater than the aggregate receipts of the Annual Roll Call of 1920, the American Red Cross announces in a statement urging a widespread increase in membership at the Annual Roll Call, November 11 to 24. At the present time National Headquarters and the nation-wide chain of Chapters of the Red Cross is spending approximately $10,000,000 annually for the relief of disabled ex-service men and their families, while the aggregate receipts from last year's Roll Call were approximately $6,000,000.

It is in the 2,289 of the 3,600 Red Cross Chapters which still are helping solve the veteran's problem of adjusting himself to a normal civilian status that the greater part of the cost of this service is borne. Of the total sum spent for veterans' relief last year, National Headquarters expended a total of more than $2,600,000, while the remaining disbursement of approximately $7,000,000 represents the contribution of Chapters in this country-wide effort to assist the Government in providing the aid sorely needed by these men and their families.

An Ever Expanding Problem

That the problem of the disabled service man is ever-expanding and probably will not reach the peak before 1925, is the assertion of well-informed Government officials and that 2,397 Red Cross Chapters regard it as their most important work is evidence that the expansion is in nowise confined to a particular section but is, on the contrary, nation-wide. At the end of the fiscal year, June 30, 1921, there were 26,300 disabled service men in the 1,932 United States Public Health Service, Contract and Government Hospitals and Soldiers Homes, and that number is increasing at a rate of 1,000 a month.

Thousands of these men receiving medical treatment, compensation and vocational training from the Government today, started their efforts to obtain them through the Red Cross Chapter. The Chapter, acting as the disabled man's agent in claims against the Government, informs the man as to the procedure necessary to gain for him that which is provided him by Federal statute. His applications for compensation, medical treatment and training are properly filed with the aid of the Red Cross Chapter.

Many Forms of Assistance

If there is delay before the man's claim is acted upon, the Red Cross Chapter lends the man money to meet the imperative needs of himself and his dependents.

Most vital to the man's gaining full benefit from the Government's care is keeping his mind free from worry about his home. Keeping the veteran's family from hardship of every kind and informing him of its welfare is another province of the Chapter. Free from fear on this score, the man's recovery and advancement usually is rapid.

Every month during the last year, the American Red Cross has given service of one kind or another to an average of 129,215 former service men and their families. An indication of the extent of the faith reposed in the Red Cross Chapter is to be found in the fact that there were 356,544 requests for friendly aid in the solution of personal problems.

448 Workers in Hospitals

While the man prior to entering Government care deals largely with the Chapter, afterward he comes into contact with the service provided by National Headquarters. There are 448 Red Cross workers in the United States Public Health Service and contract hospitals and other institutions in which these men are being cared for, whose duty is to provide for his recreation, help him with his compensation claims, keep him in touch with his family; in short, meeting his every need outside of that provided by the Government. While these are a few of the responsibilities of the National Organization, they are by no means all. Among other Red Cross accomplishments for the year are:

It handled 70,732 allotment and allowance claims.

It delivered through its Chapter organization 63,655 allotment checks to veterans who had moved from the addresses furnished to the Bureau of War Risk Insurance.

It provided a special fund of $10,000 for medical assistance to men under vocational training.

It made 32,495 loans totaling $476,000 to men taking vocational training, of which 85 per cent has been repaid.

Salt Supply Here to Stay.

The salt supply is not likely to be exhausted. Every pint of sea water contains a half ounce of salt and it is estimated that there is salt enough in the seas to cover the entire globe to a depth of 60 feet. The Scandinavians and people of northern Russia are the greatest salt eaters in the world.

LADY WAS IN A BAD FIX FROM NERVOUS INDIGESTION

Biloxi, Miss.—"I had, for a year or more, nervous indigestion, or some form of stomach trouble," says Mrs. Alonzo Ford, 1117 Clay Street, this city. "The water I drank at that time seemed to constipate me. I would suffer until I got so nervous I wanted to get down on the floor and roll. I felt like I could tear my clothes.

"Every night, and night after night, I had to take something for a laxative, and it had to be kept up nightly. My side would pain. I looked awful. My skin was sallow and seemed spotted. I would look at my hands and arms, and the flesh looked lifeless.

"I happened to get a Birthday Almanac, so I told my husband I would try the Black-Draught, which I did. I took a few big doses. I felt much better. My liver acted well. I made a good, warm tea and drank it that way. Soon I found that nervous, tight feeling was going, as was the pain in my side. I found I did not have to take it every night. Soon, after a few weeks, I could leave it off for a week or so, and I did not suffer with constipation. . . I gained flesh. I have a good color, and believe it was a stubborn liver, and that Black-Draught did the work.

"I went to my mother's (Mrs. Deeters) one day, and she wasn't well at all. . . I told her we'd try Black-Draught. We did, and now she keeps it to take after eating. It certainly helped her, and we neither will be without it in our homes. It is so simple, and the dose can be regulated as the case may be. We use small doses after meals for indigestion, and larger doses for headache or bad liver."

Thedford's Black-Draught liver medicine is for sale everywhere. J 84

One-fourth of the wheat we grow is the result of the researches of the Government. After years of untiring experiment and investigation, the Government, through the Department of Agriculture, was enabled to introduce into this country the remarkable Durum wheat through which our production has been increased fully twenty-five per cent. This has been only one of many surprising but little-known accomplishments of the Government, which are covered in the interesting series of stories for which we have the exclusive right of distribution in this community.

We'll send this literature to you each month without obligation on your part if you will ask for it.
